International Scientific Conference
ARCHITECTURE AND MODERNITY – La Tourette

La Tourette, April 4-6, 2013

Administrator

Division of Public Use Buildings A-22
Institute of Architectural Design, Faculty of Architecture
Cracow University of Technology

Aims:

The aim of the conference is:

1. to create an international platform for international dialogue regarding the concept of innovation in architecture;
2. to elaborate common ways of thinking of modernity in contemporary architecture;
3. to elevate the quality of research and methodology of teaching through collecting knowledge of the idea of modernity and its development in architectural design.

The site – i.e. Convent of Saint Mary of La Tourette by Le Corbusier – shall be considered the conference thesis.

The conference shall have a periodical form of debates held in sites fundamental for the theory of architecture, places that once were manifests of modernity.

The number of participants is limited. For further information please contact the conference office: a22@pk.edu.pl
